

INFLUENZA AWARD FOR YOUNG SCIENTISTS

To advance research in the influenza field by Young Scientists, ESWI launches its fourth award for the most promising body of work in flu research.

The competition is open to all Young Scientists throughout the world, and will be judged by an international committee of influenza experts.

YOUNG SCIENTISTS

Organized by
European Scientific
Working group on Influenza

PRIZE

The Best Body of Work Award Winner will receive:

- a cash prize of €10,000
- an invitation to speak at the Sixth ESWI Influenza Conference (Riga, 10-13 September 2017)

PROCEDURES

- Young Scientists are welcome to apply for the prize. Applicants must hold a PhD for no longer than 7 years at the time of the application.
- Special considerations (e.g. maternity/paternity leave) will be taken into account.
- Applicants should submit an executive summary report of their work as well as a proof of status in the form of an official university certificate or letter, which is signed by the supervisor/departmental head to david.depooter@eswi.org, before 14 December 2016
- Application form is available at www.eswi.org
- Award Winner announced and notified on 1 February 2017