PREPAREDNESS:
WHERE SCIENCE
AND POLICY MEET

RESPIRATORY VIRUS Summit

21 June 2022 | Brussels & online

The Respiratory Virus Summit, entitled Pandemic Preparedness: Where Science and Policy Meet, will take place in Brussels and online on Tuesday 21 June 2022. Themes of the Summit include early warning systems, diagnostic platforms, pathogen discovery, mathematical models, clinical trial platforms, non-pharmaceutical intervention and treatment strategies, pharmaceutical intervention strategies, education, communication, and global cooperation.

Taking a One Health and Global Health approach, we will explore requirements for prediction, planning and execution aspects of pandemic preparedness.
